Foreword

Colored by natural forces which caused postponement or cancellation of many activities and annual events, the 1957-58 school year has been a year to remember. The autumn Asian influenza epidemic which emptied the dormitories, and the phenomenal snowfalls of February and March which closed the college have given this year a notoriety unmatched by previous ones.

Just as this year has been different from past years, so is the Tower Echoes different from previous Towson yearbooks. Just as this year has been filled with unusual events, so is this Tower Echoes unusual in format and content.

On the pages which follow are the events and activities which have made this year a distinctive one. In recording the memorable events of this year, Tower Echoes has employed new techniques and introduced new features never before seen in Tower Echoes. This unique format and presentation of content assures the 1958 Tower Echoes a place of distinction among Towson yearbooks. The end result, the product, the record of these events has emerged more than equal to the overwhelming task of presenting the events of a distinctive year.

To the Class of 1958

A sense of truth, of balance and a lack of fear . . .

A sense of truth, of balance and a lack of fear . . .

This is a chronicle; a chronicle by and of the Class of 1958—and of a good bit more: of the college at which you have spent four of the best years of your life. Since it is a chronicle, it is a history; since it is a book, it is something permanent.

As a chronicle, this book is a definite part of the record of an institution; as a document, it will someday be used as a reference.

As a thing of permanence, it shows thoughts, facts, customs, and errors for you to behold as long as even only one copy exists.

As with this book, so be it then with the lives of the people who have written it, and who have been written about.

As with this book, so be it also with the perpetuation of your deeds, joys, sorrows, defeats, victories, and errors. These are forever in print also.

Should we omit your sorrows, errors, and the like? No! This would not be true life; to avoid error would be impossible; to write in constant fear of error would be destructive, killing.

A sense of truth, of balance, and a lack of fear—such is life, true life; this has been recorded.

Men and women of Towson, may you exemplify in full measure the hopes and the ideals for which you have striven. May you enjoy both your work and the long life of usefulness before you.

Inside the newly decorated administrative offices, the intricacies of college business were executed. Here the schedules were made, the budgets worked out, and the hundred and one details of running a college were performed. Here problems were brought and solved. To the people who worked in these offices we looked for statements of policy and for the evidences of the backbone of our college.

ORGANIZ

ATIONS

The Senate was the governing body of the school.

Student Government Association

The Student Government Association this year found itself under the guidance of Jim Binko, president; Dudley Davis, vice president; Ronnie Wartman, treasurer; Carolyn Williams, secretary; and Shirley Helwig, social chairman. Through the leadership of this formidable group the S.G.A. groped its way through a year that was very trying indeed. Almost none of the S.G.A. sponsored events were able to be carried out as originally planned because of the uncontrollable intervention of either bad weather or illness, both of which were especially prominent during this year—1957-58. Coupled with these repeated brushes with nature, the S.G.A. was saddled with the additional financial burdens which were brought about by the last minute failure of such events as the Sweetheart Dance.

Nevertheless, through wise government, the Student Government managed to survive what might otherwise have been a rather disastrous year.

Tower Light

The evaluation of "news worthiness" and the decision as to the amount of space an article deserved starts the weekly Tower Light cycle. From here the page editors pick it up, plan their layouts and post their assignments. Reporters hound the office door looking for their names on the assignment sheet, comparing their assignments with the others listed, wondering when they would get a story "worthy of their talents." And so it went from interview to typist to galleys and the printed page; each issue reflecting the life and interests on Towson's campus.

ACTIVITIES

Freshman, Freshman

Now remember dear, use your leaves wisely.

Freshmen Begin College Venture

Excited nervous freshmen plunged into a new role—that of becoming an integral part of the Towson system. "Moving in" was accomplished with record speed and a maximum of efficiency. Hungrily, students nibbled on tea sandwiches and longed for submarines. Sunday night found the males enjoying a stag party, while the females, garbed in their favorite night apparel, sandwiched themselves into Newell Hall Foyer.

Descending upon the Student Centre, freshmen munched on crullers and gulped their coffee from paper cups, while transfer students sipped their brew out of frail china cups and ate dainty slices of coffee cake in the more "cultured" atmosphere of Richmond Hall Parlor.

Testing and registration began—Moser and Jones were in their glory.

Of course, everything is not in the book.

Everywhere

A fashion show, pointing out the conventional dress expectations of Towson students, was held in the auditorium by members of the F.A.C.

The brain washing continued. Having circled left and circled right, the freshmen circled out of the gym and into more tests. Ibsen and Shakespeare were interpreted by the Glen Players as they put in their annual plug. Bel Air provided fresh air for the freshmen and stimulated goose pimples.

Freshman Week ended with a bang of the piano in the Student Centre as parents and their off-spring congregated in this arty atmosphere, sipping punch and biting into home-made cookies.

And so initiation ended and a new era began.

What? No elevators.

FAC breaks down, after a week with the Freshmen.

Dyed to match.

*Another Year
Another Step*

In mid-September the sophomores, juniors, and seniors moved in upon the residence halls amidst a barrage of cardboard boxes, suit cases, trunks, and all of the other moving in paraphenalia. By the time the upperclassmen arrived, the freshmen, F.A.C., and the various house committees were already firmly established.

Throughout the day, new roommates conferred about furniture arrangements and closet arrangements. When closet and drawer spaces had finally been completely allocated, then began the tiresome process of unpacking the various containers in which they transported all of their college regalia from home to school.

Finally at the end of the day when rooms were finally settled for the year (or at least for a few weeks) the new arrivals moved-in again upon the Student Center or any of the more handy Towson centers.

McKeldin Helps Dedicate New Building

The 1957 Convocation was given over completely to the dedication of Towson's new library and women's residence hall and the renaming of other campus buildings. Guest speakers at the dedication ceremony were Governor Theodore R. McKeldin and Dr. Thomas Pullen. Both speakers emphasized progress—progress coupled with rededication.

The completion of the Albert S. Cook Library and Prettyman Hall has enhanced both Towson's prestige and quality as an institution of higher learning. The dedication of these badly-needed buildings marked the beginning of Towson's final emergence as a full-fledged college—a college equipped to handle the countless "collegiate" problems.

His Excellency, the Honorable Theodore R. McKeldin.

The Holidays

Bologni conducts the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra.

A Towson first—a Buffet Thanksgiving Dinner.

Thanksgiving brought a change to the familiar dining room. The innovation—the removal of tables and chairs and the serving of a buffet-style Thanksgiving dinner—was purely for the purpose of relieving crowded conditions, but some welcomed the change of routine and associated the difference with the holiday season. Tradition was resumed, however, by the follow up to the dinner, the Baltimore Symphony Concert and Brahms First seemed especially beautiful that night.

At Christmas dinner, tradition prevailed from formal dress and candlelight to turkey, cranberries and pumpkin pie. After dinner, Dr. Santa Claus Hartley and college entertainment provided twenty-five orphans with a bit of Christmas. Caroling, hot chocolate, and cup cakes brought an evening of pre-holiday festivities to an end, and with suitcases packed, we headed for home while STC closed its doors for another Christmas vacation.

Rehearsal break

To the Glen Players belong some of the most amazing people on campus. A virtual potpourri of talents, interests and personalities hover around a single core of enthusiasm—the love of the theater and it is, perhaps the strength of this single item that maintains a balance among such a conglomeration of divergences. Yet variety and versatility are just what is needed in an organization of this sort. The production and presentation of fine dramatic entertainment, is possibly, the most difficult and challenging of our college enterprises and is only with a gamut of proficiencies that this challenge can be met.

The Glen Players

Reading for the next play.

Skin of Our Teeth

The Antrobus clan hit the college stage for a four day run and amid applause and laughter let the audience know what Mr. Thornton Wilder felt about man's progress through the ages. They made their point well, judging from audience response, and the flashes of humor that are so much a part of "Skin of Our Teeth" were excellently conveyed. The Glen Players seemed to catch and absorb the spirit of the play and became a pure medium between author and viewer. A memorable performance was given by Mr. Dennis Fry (Mr. Antrobus) who succeeded so well in adopting the identity of his role. Though each actor was a familiar face, for two and one half hours the members of the Glen Players lost their identities and became the instruments of Mr. Wilder's philosophy and humor.

. . . You know how easily your father is upset . . .

Mr. Antrobus finds many attractions along the boardwalk in Atlantic City.

The Corn is Green

Miss Aline MacMahon—Guest Star.

In the Glen Player's production of The Corn Is Green, Miss Aline MacMahon; star of stage, cinema and television, was invited to play the role of the understanding school teacher. Miss MacMahon came to Towson as a member of ANTAs "artist-in-residence" program, which makes it possible for college theatrical organizations to gain valuable experience by acting with professional actors and actresses.

The enthusiasm that prevailed the entire week of Miss MacMahon's stay on campus seemed never to have existed before in quite that degree. Opening night was tangible proof. Miss MacMahon, supported by an equally talented cast, scored a hit.

. . . Stay away from him. You may ruin his career . . .

. . . Madge is the pretty one. Madge has always been the pretty one.

Picnic

The Glen Players last presentation of the year was William Inge's prize-winning play Picnic. The cast for this rather ambitious venture included several stars, many of whom never played a major role at Towson or elsewhere. Besides the rather large proportion of fresh talent in starring roles, this production was marked by another innovation: the presentation of the play-in-the-round. The cast, the play, and the theatre-in-the-round were well accepted by the audiences.

A completely decorated and festive Fifth Regiment Armory stood empty on February 15, 1958. The stage had been set for Towson's annual Sweetheart Dance, but Mother Nature stole the show as she blanketed the city with one of the heaviest snowfalls recorded in recent years, causing postponement of the dance. The dance was finally held a month later at the Pikesville Armory. Hundreds of Towson students and their quests danced to the music of the Claude Thornhill Orchestra. The highlight of the evening was the crowning of Miss Shirley Helwig and Mr. Dave King as the 1958 Sweetheart Couple.

Drew Pearson Speaks on Campus

Drew Pearson, internationally-known columnist, news commentator, and author of "Washington Merry-Go Round," was the choice of the Student Government Association for its annual guest speaker. Mr. Pearson's speech was entitled: "Is the United States a Second Class Power?" In his speech, Mr. Pearson incorporated much of the information he had learned during his recent tour of "iron curtain" countries. An informal coffee hour was given in his honor following the speech.

Miss Joan Archambault is crowned Queen of the May by Doctor Earle T. Hawkins, president.

The queen and her court reign at the May Day festivities.

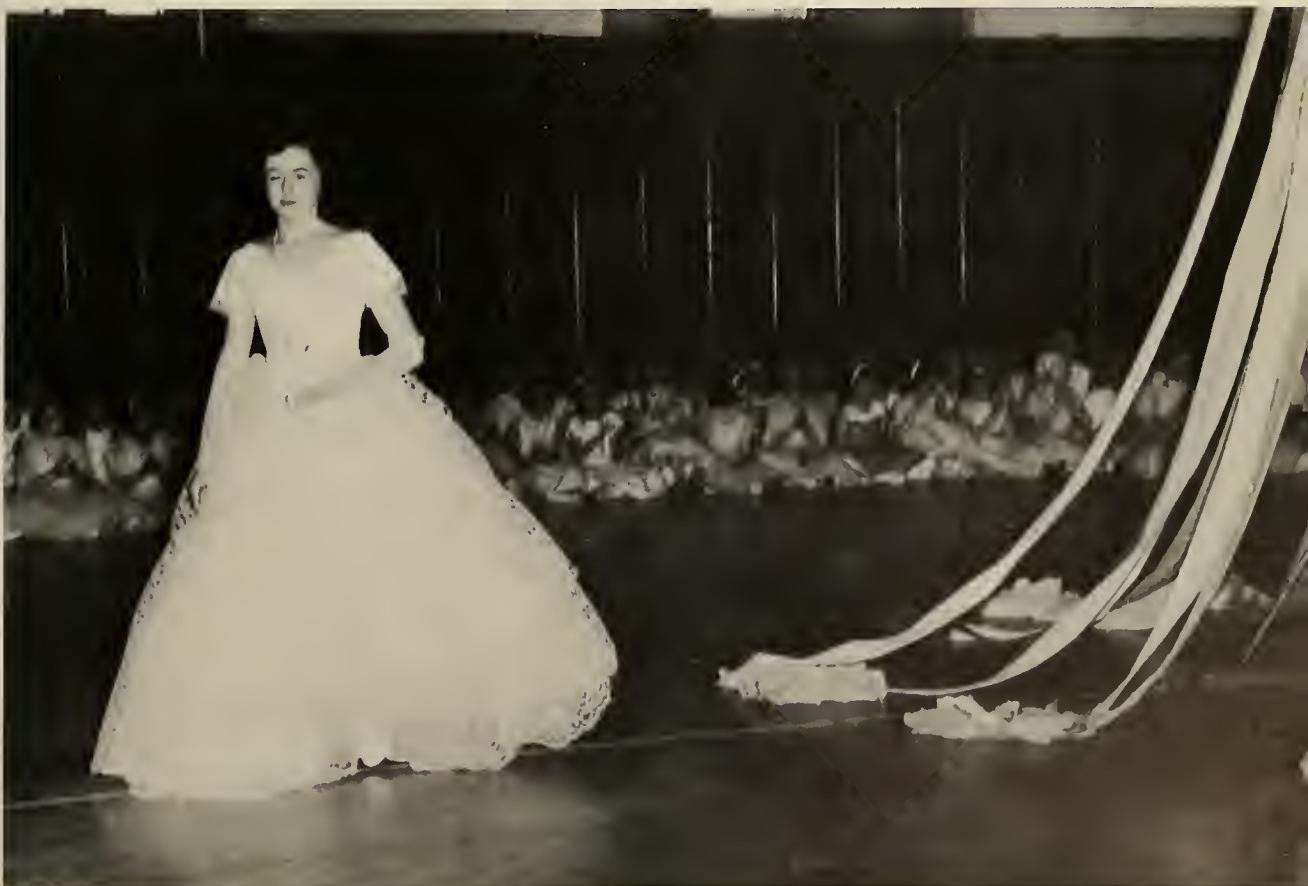

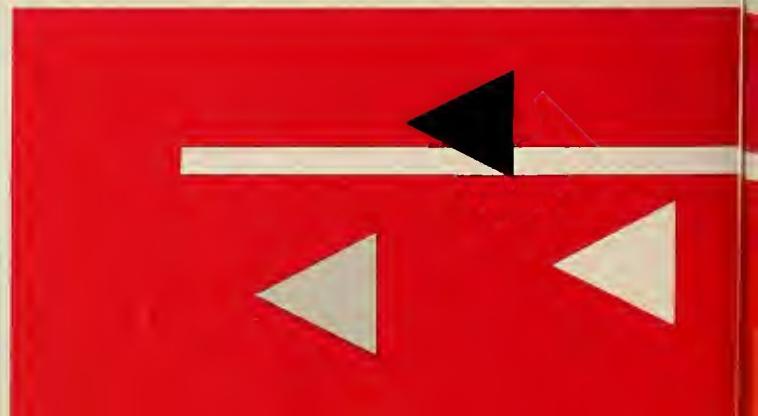

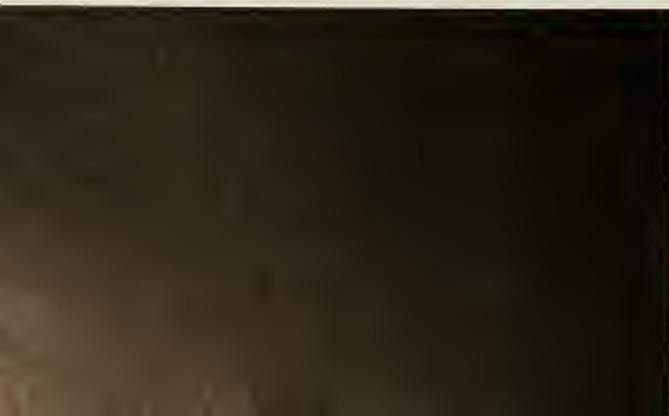

Following along in the tradition set by preceding 1958 activities, the Festival of Flowers suffered weather interference and had to be held in Stephens Hall. The lower level was crowded with the usual concessions selling cupcakes, lemonade, and lemon-peppermint sticks. Only the cautious Seniors, who feared a small turn-out, failed to open their stand and so no hot dogs were sold that day. The program, held in the auditorium, got under way with the procession of the May Court and the presentation of the Maid of Honor, Miss Lenora Carr. Mr. Nelson Bolender, acting as master of ceremonies, kept the audience amused as well as informed as to the goings on. Then, the highlight of the afternoon, the crowning of Miss Joan Archambault as 1958 Queen of the May, took place. The college orchestra, glee club and physical education department participated in the program and the children from Lida Lee Tall School also took part. This was a day for parents, students, faculty and alumni to gather at the college, witness the activities, and to spend the day generally visiting. Old and new faces were seen as we walked under over-cast skies, along the campus paths. As a climax to the festivities, a dance sponsored by the Senior Class, was held in Wiedenfield Gymnasium. It wasn't May Day in its usual sense; it was damp, and cold, and misty. Nevertheless, it was a day enjoyed by all who came.

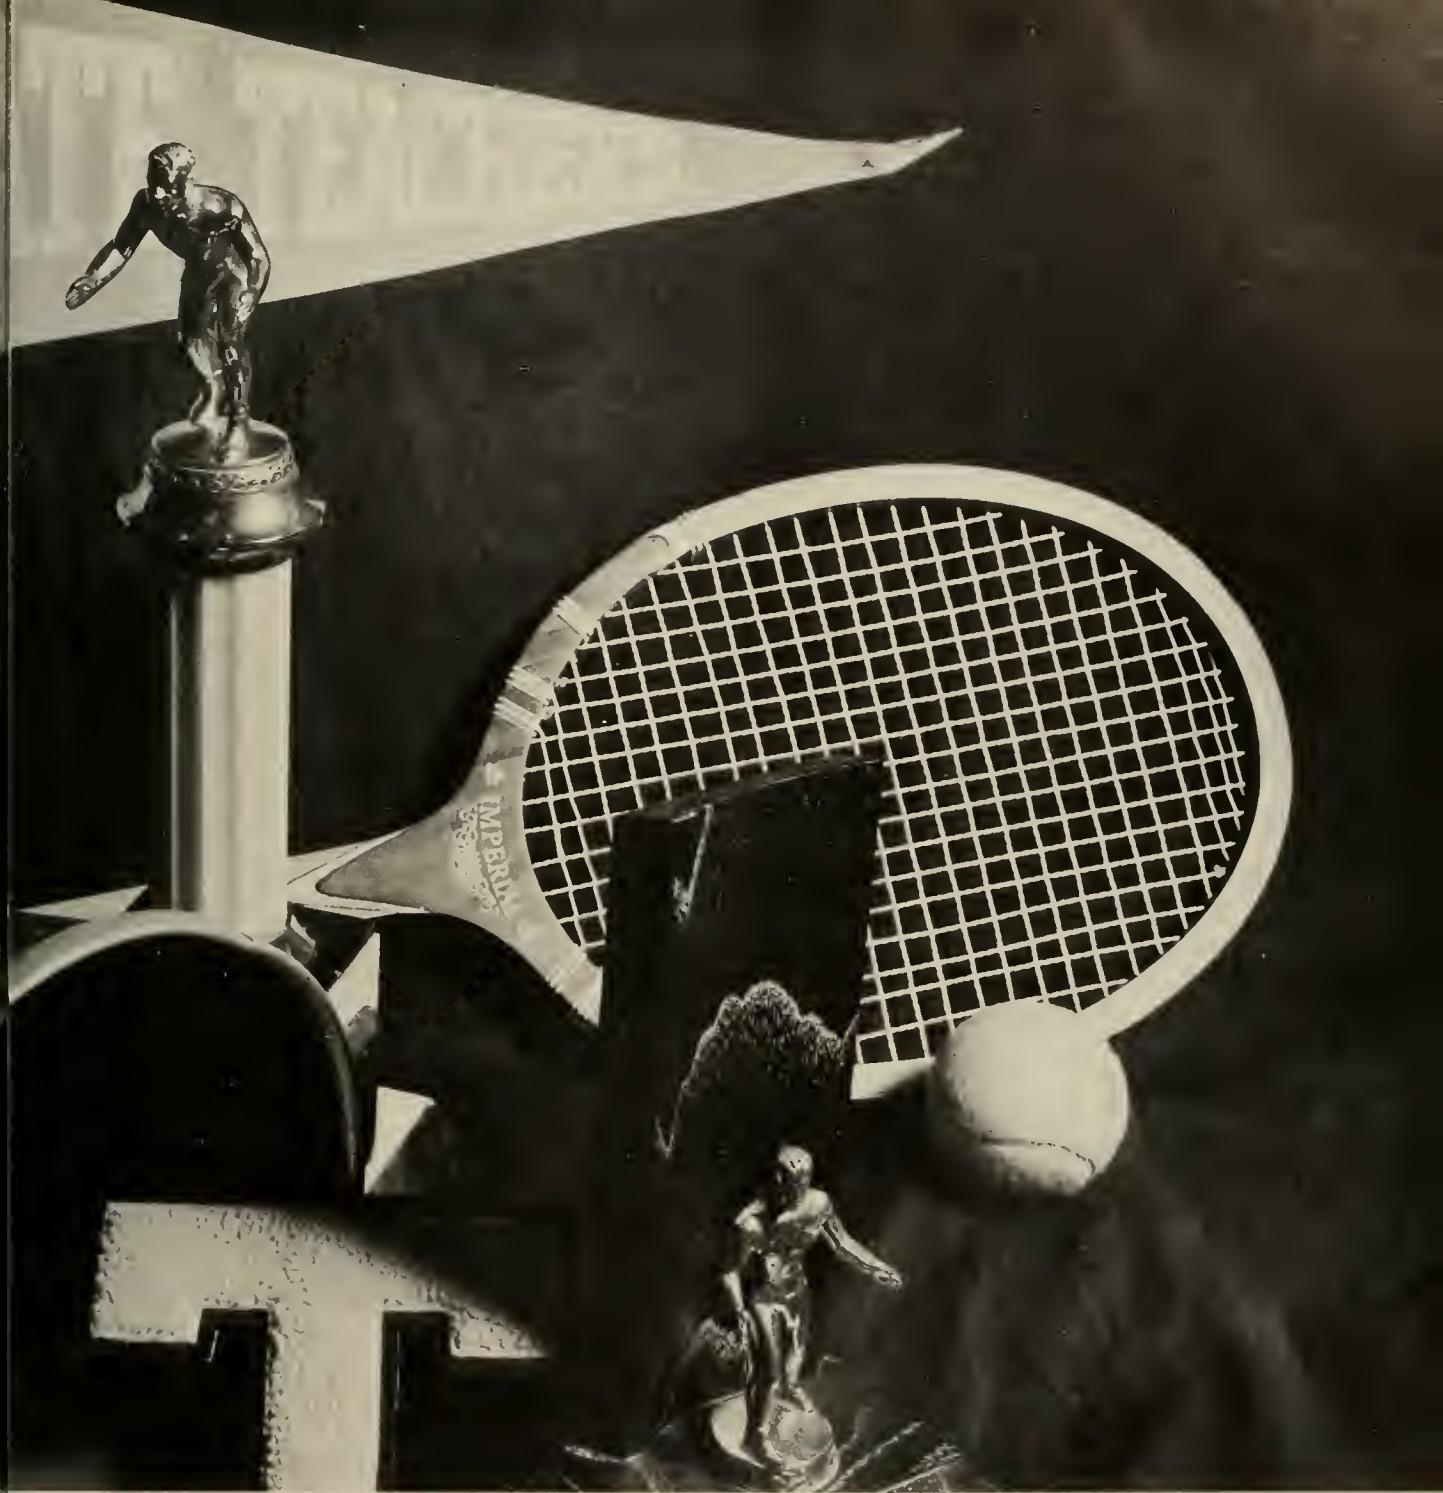

Regardless of the rain, the concession stands still did a very good business.

Queen Archambault makes her grand entrance into the auditorium.

Cheerleaders

"Gimme a 'T.' Gimmie an 'O. '" This is one of the many cheers heard coming from the stands led by the Towson cheerleaders.

In their white skirts and white sweaters with the big black and yellow "T," they can be seen at most of the athletic events boosting the morale of the team and the spirit of the student body.

The cheerleaders always added special flavor to all sports events.

In spite of loss of key players from last year's winning team and injuries, Towson State's 1957 soccer team turned in a 6-3 slate for the season. Each of the team's losses was by a one-point margin. The Knights' 31-game winning streak was ended by Catholic University, one of the top three rated soccer teams in the nation.

Several Towson men were honored by being named to "all" soccer teams. Last year's All-American back Henry Litchfuss, Willie Reider and Dick Clem were named to the first string Mason-Dixon Conference team. Ed Lorenz was selected for the second string Mason-Dixon team, and Bunky Hunt was given honorable mention. Four Knight players made the All-Southern Conference team. They were: Henry Litchfuss, Bob Bolling, Ed. Sistek, and Dick Clem.

Senior Henry Litchfuss displays the form which made him high scorer for the Knights, as well as an All-American back.

Goalie Willie Reider makes another great "save."

Cross Country

Bob Burgess is a close second as a Frostburg runner heads toward the winning tape.

Coached by Mr. Carl Reitenbach, Towson's small, but spirited 1957-58 cross country team turned in a 2-4 record for the season. The team's victories came at the expense of Bowie State Teachers College and Gallaudet College. Freshman Tom Bittenger proved to be an outstanding runner for the team.

Indoor Track

Towson's winter track squad was small this year, but they performed well. Coached by "Doc" Minnegan the relay team, consisting of Joe Tischer, Ed. Badalato, Bill Gede, and Don Pace, placed second in the annual Mason-Dixon Relays. The same combination took fourth place in the Star Meet held in Washington, D. C.

Don Pace proved outstanding in the mile relay.

Wrestling

Hit hard by the loss of several key men from last year's squad, the 1957-58 wrestling team still managed to post a respectable 4-4 record. One of the highlights of the season was Dick Clem's victory over Baltimore University's Bernie Gordon in the finals of the Mason-Dixon Championship tournament held at Towson. This victory not only gave Clem his third Mason-Dixon championship, but helped him win the title of "Outstanding Mason-Dixon Conference Wrestler of the Year."

Next year the Knights will be without the services of seniors Jim Long, Dick Clem, Carey Bolster, and Lee Hughes, but prospects for next year's team look bright. Don Sudbrink will be back along with such promising matmen as Bill Kerby, Bob Rothgaber, Ray D'Amario, Dave Steffenson, Ron Engle, Joe Evans, and Norm Dean.

Trapped Gallaudet matman struggles in vain to escape the clutches of veteran Don Sudbrink.

Basketball

With the 1958 basketball team it was the age old story—lack of height. Towson had good outside shooters in Dave Eden and Jerry Masemore, but lacked the height to get the ball off the boards. Dave Eden was the team's leading scorer with 243 points. His scoring ability was missed by the team when a broken wrist forced him to miss the last three games of the season. Henry Lichtfuss, Bunky Hunt, and Henry Feldman turned in good performances for the Knights throughout the season.

Junior hoopster Dave King attempts shot as Barry Smith and Henry Lichtfuss wait expectantly for the rebound.

Lacrosse

The year 1958 saw the birth of a new sport on the Towson campus. After a long struggle, permission was granted for the formation of a lacrosse team.

Towson's team, for the most part, was composed of inexperienced players. The fine first-year performance turned in by the squad was a testimony to the coaching of Dietrich von Schwerdtner and his assistant, Street Whiteford.

The Knights opened the season with scrimmage against the Johns Hopkins Freshmen team and the Baltimore University "B" squad. Towson lost both of these scrimmages by a 11-3 count. They held an undefeated and highly-rated Baltimore Junior College squad to 9-7 and 11-8 scores in the two games played with them. Towson ended its season by defeating a highly respected Baltimore Lacrosse Club by an 11-4 score.

Coach von Schwerdtner has high hopes for next year's squad. The only men missing from the team will be the three senior captains, Lee Noel, Lee Hughes, and Ron Wartman.

Stickmen Invade Towson Campus

The team receives last minute instructions from Coach von Schwerdtner.

Baltimore Junior College goalie blocks Towson's scoring attempt.

Baseball

Coach Earl Killian's 1958 baseball team finished the season with a 5-8 record which was a possible 3rd place in the Northern Division of the Mason Dixon Conference. The team started in a winning way, defeating American University by a 9-6 count and American University by a 9-3 score. Then the bottom fell out as the team took a 20-1 shellacking from Washington College and an 18-8 beating from Western Maryland. However, the Knights did do much to bolster their ego by defeating both of their cross-town rivals. Baltimore University fell 4-2 and Johns Hopkins found itself at the short end of a 9-2 count.

Bridgewater batter literally bites the dust as Dick Clem tags him at first.

Cardwell. Third row: Coach Killian, Fred Levin, Bunky Hunt, Tom McAuliffe, Bob Deller, Max Freisland, Bob Bowling, Donald Younglove.

Track

The 1958 track team was one of the smallest in several years. The squad, hindered by the lack of manpower, turned in a disappointing 1-3 record in dual meets. One of the highlights of the season was Bill Gede scoring 25 points against Frostburg State, breaking a school scoring record held by Don Hosler. Ed. Miller also set a school record with his high jump of six feet. Because of the fine performances in the shot put and discus events by Henry Litchfuss and Bob Turner, Towson was able to win these events in all of her dual meets. Other consistent performers were Bob Burgess, Jerry Masemore and Don Pace.

Bob Turner puts the shot.

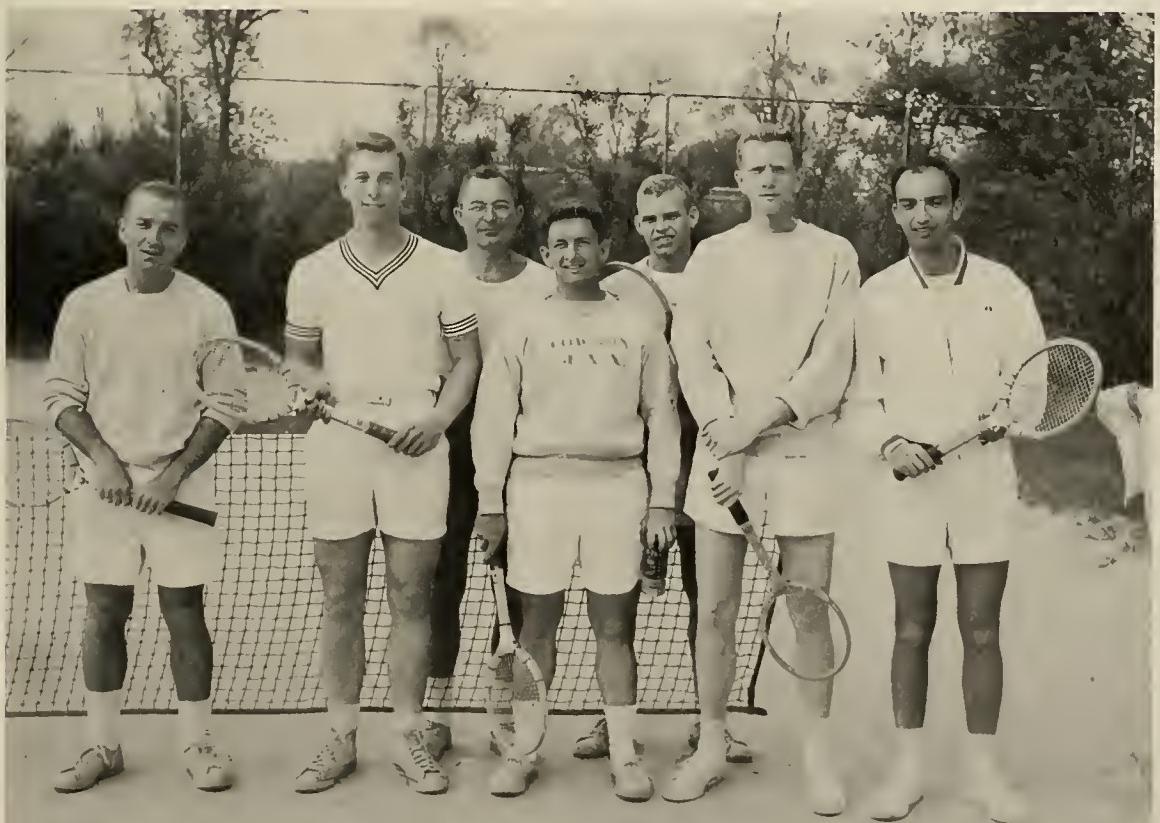

Tennis

Doctor McCleary's tennis squad turned in a season's record of four wins and eight losses. As in past years, the team suffered because it lacked men who had had previous tennis experience. The team missed the services of senior Dudley Davis, last year's number one man who turned professional last summer. Both Morty Pruce and Phil Kennedy turned in fine efforts for this year's team.

Morty Pruce and Phil Kennedy prove to be a winning combination on the courts.

Hockey

Towson's field hockey team, despite the makeshift uniforms worn by its members, made a good showing during the 1957 season. Coached by Miss Roach, the team played many of the other Maryland Colleges including Notre Dame of Maryland, Goucher College and Western Maryland College. Kathy Clagett, Elaine Hall and Roz Eisman turned in fine performances for the Towson squad.

Gerry Barnes, President of the WAA, directed the women's elective program.

Basketball

Towson's girls' basketball team ended the 1957-58 season with a record of three wins and three losses. The girls lost two close games to two of the state's better squads. Notre Dame of Maryland defeated them by a 46-45 score and they fell before a powerful Western Maryland College six by a 38-37 count. Towson's wins came at the expense of Goucher College, Villa Julie, and Mount St. Agnes College.

. . . JUMP BALL . . . Towson's Jean Vaughn goes high in the air in an attempt to hit the ball away from a Notre Dame player.

Who's Who at Towson State Teachers

For the first time in its history, Tower Echoes publishes its list of thirty outstanding members of the Senior Class. We feel that the students nominated for this honor are well qualified to be chosen to Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities. Towson State Teachers College does not participate in this national honorary at this time, but we hope that it will in future years.

Leadership, scholarship, service to class and school are the qualities which represent those chosen to Outstanding Seniors of 1958. Those appearing on this list were selected by a committee of students and faculty members.

Senior Class President Carey Bolster receives the gown symbolic of the forthcoming graduation from Dr. Earle T. Hawkins, President of the College.

Dr. David W. Zimmerman, Assistant Superintendent of Education in Maryland, speaks to the candidates for the degree at the Senior Investiture Convocation.

Investiture

Mr. Karl Moser, Mr. Samuel Nass, Dr. Regina Fitzgerald and Dr. Lois Odell lead the faculty into Stephen's Hall auditorium for the convocation.

Baccalaureate Service

The Reverend Louis Ralph Tabor, D.D., Guest Speaker.

The Student Christian Choir offered several musical selections which helped to embellish the solemnity of the service.

Appetizers were served at Glen Esk preceding the dinner

Rosemary Jenkins, co-editor of Tower Echoes, receives her degree from Governor McKeldin.

Reuben G. Gustavson, President and Executive Director, Resources of the Future Inc.—Guest Speaker.

Commencement

His Excellency Theodore R. McKeldin addresses the graduating Seniors.

*The Class
1958*

To the Class of 1958 . . .

When a college student reaches his senior year, he comes ever more close to that point in his life which will determine many things for him. As he progresses through this final year, this point of decision looms nearer and nearer to him. When the day of his graduation arrives, he finds himself face to face with a situation which he himself must meet— frankly and without doubt. Frankly—because he must look closely at himself and see himself as he really is. Without doubt—because he must be absolutely certain of what the ramifications of his decision will be.

Certainty, absolute certainty is important at this point in one's career, because the decision which must be made will be irrevocable. Once the decision has been made, like everything else we do, nothing can completely erase the results of that decision. Granted, that decisions of every kind have been reversed. But the results of no decision have ever, or can ever be reversed.
